

Provo Primary School Pre- School Class

Happy New Year to you all!

I hope you all had a good holiday. Firstly I would like to welcome back Emilio who now has a new baby sister and Edo who is new to the pre-school class.

Current Theme: Festivals and People who help us

For the first part of January we will be completing the topic of Festivals introducing the children to new cultures and traditions of another country such as that of China. We will be sampling Chinese cuisine as well as making lots of craft activities relating to this theme. We will then continue with the theme People Who Help Us again providing lots of opportunities to extend the children's learning through play.

Reminders...

Please can you remember to return your child's book.

Please label clothes, bags, hats and water bottles

Please remember to bring a hat for your child each day.

Please let us know if your child has any food allergies

This Month we say Happy Birthday to.....

Melissa 21st January
And Luisa on the 9th January
